To Whom it may Concern

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing this letter as a personal reference for Mr. Quinn Cornwell. Mr. Cornwell has tutored me in the subject of Mathematics for over a year, allowing me to get an appropriate understanding of his teaching abilities and work ethic.

Over the past year I have found Mr. Cornwell to be honest, reliable, hard working, conscientious and courteous. His ability to cater to a variety of issues and individual needs proved satisfying when studying for upcoming exams. Furthermore, his teaching style was characterised by patience and endurance, providing students with the necessary knowledge and determination to perform successfully in Mathematics.

As evidence for Mr. Cornwell's exceptional teaching abilities, he was able to increase my grade in Mathematics by 3 levels. His tutoring effectively widened my understanding and confidence in the subject, enabling me to enhance my academic potential. With this in mind, I have no doubt that he will be an excellent teacher at your school.

I trust that the information provided will be of assistance and will be happy to provide further information, if required.

Yours faithfully,

Philipp Boder
